

Presiding Officer

General (Retired)

Ehsan Ul Haq

GENERAL (RETIRED) EHSAN UL HAQ was commissioned in the Pakistan Army in October 1969. He is a graduate of Pakistan Army Command and Staff College Quetta, and got his Master Degree in War Studies from National Defence University, Islamabad. He is also a graduate of the PLA Air Defence College Zhengzhou, People's Republic of China. General Ehsan Ul Haq has held various command, instructional and staff appointments. He was elevated to the rank of 4 stars General in October 2004, appointed as Chairman Joint Chiefs of Staff Committee Pakistan and retired in October 2007.

Ever since his retirement, General (retired) Ehsan Ul Haq has been engaged in a number of corporate, intellectual and humanitarian activities. He is a frequent speaker in international forums, reputed think tanks and universities on geopolitical, defence and security issues. In recognition of his meritorious services, General (Retired) Ehsan Ul Haq has been conferred the award of Hilal-i-Imtiaz (Military), Nishan-i-Imtiaz (Military), Chevalier de la Legion d' Honneur from the French Government and is a recipient of the King Abdul Aziz Medal from the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.